Office Hours:	Wednesdays, 11am-noon via Zoom

Course Description:

Calendar Description:

An examination of the relationship of literature to the world around us, with instruction in close reading and critical writing. Considers how literature as a cultural practice responds to and reflects its social context.

In this course, students will read the assigned works carefully and critically with the goal of developing their critical reading and analytical writing skills. The development of research and writing skills will be a central component of the course, and students will receive instruction in the process of composition throughout the term. Course texts will cover a wide range of historical periods and genres and will include texts by indigenous authors.

Course learning outcomes:

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Close read literature in a variety of forms and genres. This process begins by understanding that a text is constructed, and not a transparent reflection of reality.
2. Employ a range of technical terms and critical tools with which to interpret texts.
3. Write strong, well-supported, clearly written academic essays with effective and persuasive analytical arguments.
4. Understand what constitutes plagiarism and use proper documentation in their written work.
5. Develop library research skills: how to search and locate reference works, books and articles, both electronic and print; and how to use print and online resources responsibly and thoughtfully.
6. Engage with other scholars by responding to critical texts.

Texts and readings:

Required:

- Dimaline, Cherie, Empire of Wild, Vintage Canada, 2019. 978-0735277205
- Robinson, Eden, Monkey Beach, Vintage Canada, 2001. 978-0676973228

Recommended:

- Weinstock, The Mad Scientist's Guide to Composition, Broadview, 2019. (Print or eBook available)

Online Resources

- Other required assigned readings will be provided via D2L as links to websites or library resources, or as PDF files in accordance with copyright compliance regulations
<https://library.ucalgary.ca/copyright>
- A detailed schedule of readings will be circulated during the first week of classes.

Learning technology requirements:

There is a D2L site for this course which contains required readings and other relevant class resources and materials (see d2L.ucalgary.ca). Students may be required to watch films or videos via services like CBC Gem, YouTube, or Netflix.

 - Assignments submitted after the deadline will be penalized with the loss of a third of a grade (for example, an A- to B+) for each business day [not class] that the assignment is overdue.
 - Assignments submitted after the due date will be graded but will not have feedback provided.
 - No assignments will be accepted one week past the assignment deadline without the prior consent of the instructor.
- It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause.
- You do not have to complete all assignments in order to receive a passing grade in the course.

Attendance and participation expectations:

Students are expected to attend class regularly and to be fully present and engaged in class activities and discussions.

Conduct:

Students, employees, and academic staff are also expected to demonstrate behaviour in class that promotes and maintains a positive and productive learning environment. As members of the University community, students, employees, and academic staff are expected to demonstrate conduct that is consistent with the University of Calgary Calendar, the Code of Conduct and Non-Academic Misconduct policy and procedures, which can be found at:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>

Policy on use of electronic devices:

The use of laptop and mobile devices in class is acceptable when used in a manner appropriate to the course and classroom activities. Please refrain from accessing websites and resources that may be distracting to you or for other learners during class time. Students are responsible for being aware of the University’s Internet and email use policy. Electronic devices are not permitted during the Midterm or Final Examination.

Email: I will not provide summaries of class via email, nor will I respond to emails that ask for information provided in the course documents. Please use appropriate salutations and signatures in your emails. I will respond to emails within 48 (business) hours. This means I do not respond to emails after 5:00 p.m. or on weekends.

Grading System:

- In this course, all assignments and exams will be marked on the University of Calgary’s four-point Undergraduate Grading System, as described in the Calendar:
<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-2.html> A+/A (4.0); A- (3.7); B+ (3.3); B (3.0); B- (2.7); C+ (2.3); C (2.0); C- (1.7); D+ (1.3); D (1.0); F (0)
- Written assignments will receive letter grades. Exams will receive a numerical grade, to be converted using the following scale:

90 + %	A+	4.0	67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
85 – 89 %	A	4.0	64 – 66 %	C	2.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7	60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3	55 – 59 %	D+	1.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0	50 – 54 %	D	1.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7	0 – 49 %	F	0

Although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the four-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that far exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality.

Students must reach the minimum percentage threshold for the grade range to receive that letter grade. For example, to receive an A- a student must have surpassed the minimum threshold of 80.00% in the course.

The interpretation of the undergraduate university grading system can be found at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1-1.html>

There is no D- grade.

Academic Integrity:

This course, like all courses at the University of Calgary, holds students to high standards of honest and responsible scholarship. Please consult the Academic Integrity website for a detailed description of university policies, which will be enforced in this course. Cases of suspected academic misconduct will be referred to the Associate Dean of Arts for a ruling.

Plagiarism is a type of academic misconduct. Plagiarism occurs when a student presents the ideas, expression of ideas, or work of another person as their own. Another equally serious form of plagiarism occurs when a student submits something they have written themselves for credit in two or more courses without first securing written permission from all those course instructors. Consequences for plagiarism include failure on the assignment, failure in the course, and possible suspension or expulsion from the university. Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense.

Deferral of term work and final examinations:

Should you require an extension for completion of term papers or assignments beyond the deadline of five days after the end of lectures, an Application of Deferment of Term Work must be completed. It is the student's responsibility to initiate this process with the instructor. The University also has regulations governing the deferral of final examinations.

Grade appeals:

To pursue a Reassessment of Graded Term Work or a Reappraisal of an Academic Assessment, Consult the University Calendar and request advice from the English Department at engl@ucalgary.ca. Please note that mere dissatisfaction with a grade is not sufficient grounds for an appeal.
