Course description: This course will examine how contemporary Canadian playwrights have envisioned the nation's contribution to the First and Second World Wars, as well as its involvement in contemporary warfare. Through textual analysis and close reading, it will acquaint students with the characteristic techniques of dramaturgy and basic theatre terminology, giving detailed attention to the formal conventions of literature written to be performed on stage.

Texts and readings:

Billy Bishop Goes to War, John Gray and Eric Peterson

This is War, Hannah Moscovitch

Canada and the Theatre of War, Volume One, Eds. Donna Coates and Sherrill Grace

Canada and the Theatre of War, Volume Two, Eds. Donna Coates and Sherrill Grace

Assignments and Evaluation:

One paired or group presentation of twenty-minutes' length on one play (handed in immediately before the presentation in essay format)	25%
Paired or group official questions (three) on one play	15%
Twenty questions (two per class on plays students are neither presenting on nor officially responding to)	10%
Short paper (5-7 pages) on two plays	20%
Major paper (10 pages) on two plays submitted on last day of class (please note that if you wish to have your paper returned to you, submit it in a stamped, self-addressed envelope)	30%

There are no extra-credit assignments in this class.

Undergraduate students will receive marked feedback on 40% of their final grade (provided students meet posted deadlines) one week before the withdrawal date for half courses.

There is no final examination in this course. Please note that you MUST submit all assignments for a passing grade. During the first week of class, students will receive a list of dates when specific plays will be discussed. Specific assignment submission instructions will be handed out during the second week of class.

Electronic submissions are not accepted. In order to avoid a late penalty, please submit your assignments at the BEGINNING of class. I will penalize late work by one full letter grade for every business (not class) day late. As well, I will grade, but not mark, late papers.

Please make every effort to take assignments directly to the instructor. If it is not possible to do so, take your assignment to SS 1152 and put it in the dropbox. Your assignment will be date-stamped and placed in the instructor's mailbox. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of all assignments in case of loss by any cause. Assignments cannot be returned by staff in the Department office.

Grading system:

I will utilize the English Department's percentage conversion scale.

90 + %	A+	4.0
85 – 89 %	A	4.0
80 – 84 %	A–	3.7
77 – 79 %	B+	3.3
74 – 76 %	B	3.0
70 – 73 %	B–	2.7
67 – 69 %	C+	2.3
64 – 66 %	C	2.0
60 – 63 %	C–	1.7
55 – 59 %	D+	1.3
50 – 54 %	D	1.0
0 – 49 %	F	0

The University of Calgary's four-point Undergraduate Grading System, as described in the Calendar (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-2.html>), will be used in this course.

A+/A (4.0); A- (3.7); B+ (3.3); B (3.0); B- (2.7); C+ (2.3); C (2.0); C- (1.7); D+ (1.3); D (1.0); F (0)

Please note there is no D- grade.

Please note that, according to the University Calendar (F.1), instructors may use their discretion when rounding upwards or downwards when the average of term work and exams is between two letter grades. I reserve the right to exercise this privilege.

Please also note that although the A+ is solely an honorific that entails no additional points in the four-point system, the course instructor will employ this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, correctness, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, and originality.

You may use ONLY laptop computers in class ONLY to take notes or for class presentations.

I will endeavor to respond to email inquiries in a timely fashion, but I will not go over information missed in class, nor will I discuss graded material. Please make an appointment to see me if you wish to discuss your research projects, as well. Please also exchange contact information with a student in class early in the semester so that the student can take notes for you and pick up handouts.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is an extremely serious offence. Please read the following information carefully. The penalty routinely recommended by the English Department for documented plagiarism is failure of the course in which the offence occurred; academic probation is also routinely applied at the Faculty level. Suspension or expulsion can result from severe or repeated plagiarism.

The University Calendar states:

1. Plagiarism - Essentially plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student's own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Most commonly plagiarism exists when:

- (a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test),
- (b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author,
- (c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or,
- (d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.

Plagiarism occurs when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement, or when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. Citing your sources in a bibliography is not enough, because a bibliography does not establish which parts of a student's work are taken from other sources. MLA (Modern Language Association) documentation or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose. Advice on adequate documentation can be found at the following web sites:

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH STATEMENT ON PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT

According to the University Calendar, (<http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/j.html>) "The University of Calgary community has undertaken to be guided by the following statements of purpose and values: to promote free inquiry and debate, to act as a community of scholars, ..., to respect, appreciate, and encourage diversity, [and] to display care and concern for community". The Department of English, like the university as a whole, is committed to a "positive and productive learning and working environment." This environment is characterized by appreciation and encouragement of diversity and respect for the dignity of all persons: students, support staff, and faculty. The department will not tolerate unacceptable behaviour, such as threatening gestures, threatening or abusive verbal or written communication (including e-mails), or any conduct that "seriously disrupts the lawful education and related activities of students and/or university staff". Any cases of such misconduct should be reported immediately to the department Head, who, depending on the nature and severity of the incident, may then take further appropriate action.
